Help with Federal Agencies > Help My Child Prepare For College

How do I prepare my child academically and/or financially for college?

You can help your child make informed decisions about his or her college education.

Find helpful information to prepare your child for college

There are many federal, state, and private educational savings programs. Educational IRA's, prepaid

Find more information regarding these and other educational savings plans