

Congressman Campbell's office is pleased to offer internships to students who wish to learn more about Congress and the legislative process. By allowing students a unique perspective on the inner workings of our country's representative government, Congressional internships offer an exciting educational experience.

Internships are unpaid positions. During the summer months, internships generally vary in length. During the academic year (September to May), internships generally cover the student's semester, from September to December in the Fall or January to May in the Spring. Both part-time and full-time internships are available.

Washington DC Office:

Interns in our office must be highly motivated, have strong communication skills, both written and verbal, and possess a keen interest in the legislative process. Duties include attending legislative hearings and community meetings, participating in regular office meetings, conducting legislative research, giving tours of the Capitol Building to visiting 48th District residents, and responding to constituent inquiries and phone calls.

If you are interested in applying for an internship in Congressman Campbell's Washington DC office, please complete the following application . After submitting your application and cover letter online, please mail a writing sample, formal resume, and letters of recommendation to Washington D.C. office. For more information, please email our Washington, DC Intern Coordinator, Wes McClelland , or at 202-225-5611.

Applications for D.C. internships for Spring 2010 are due no later than November 13, 2009.

Newport Beach-District Office:

Congressman John Campbell's office is pleased to offer Newport Beach district office internships to college students.

Internships in the District Office are unpaid positions. Interns in our district office must be highly motivated, have strong communication skills, both written and verbal, and a keen interest in the legislative process. Duties include responding to constituent inquiries and phone calls, participating in regular office meetings, conducting legislative research and attending district events and community meetings.

If you are interested in applying for an internship in Congressman Campbell's Newport Beach office, please submit a cover letter, formal resume, and any letters of recommendation to our District Office Intern Coordinator, Chris Palmer (fax number is 949-251-9309).

