Club for Growth has been keeping a running list of those Members of the House of Representatives who have sworn off pork until the process of earmarking is reformed. I am proud to have my name on this list, and I hope to see more of my colleagues join me. To see the full list, click here Club for Growth has been keeping a running list of those Members of the House of Representatives who have sworn off pork until the process of earmarking is reformed. I am proud to have my name on this list, and I hope to see more of my colleagues join me.

To see the full list, click here