The Tustin Chamber of Commerce hosted Congressman John Campbell as a special guest speaker at a morning breakfast meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 11. Campbell addressed an audience of community members and business people at Tustin Ranch Golf Club. His presentation ranged from the political climate in Washington, D.C., to the payroll tax cut, to economic reform, to redistricting in California. Officer Brad Saunders was also named the Chamber's Tustin Police Officer of the Month and presented with awards and recognitions from elected officials.
