Republican Study Committee Chairman Jeb Hensarling (R-TX), RSC Budget and Spending Task Force Chair John Campbell (R-CA), RSC Communications Chair Marsha Blackburn (R-TN), and RSC Whip Scott Garrett (R-NJ) today issued the following statements after Ways & Means Chairman Charlie Rangel (D-NY) in... Republican Study Committee Chairman Jeb Hensarling (R-TX), RSC Budget and Spending Task Force Chair John Campbell (R-CA), RSC Communications Chair Marsha Blackburn (R-TN), and RSC Whip Scott Garrett (R-NJ) today issued the following statements after Ways & Means Chairman Charlie Rangel (D-NY) introduced legislation that will raise taxes on hard working Americans by over $1 trillion:

"Charlie Rangel will tell you that his bill is revenue neutral, and that the RSC proposal is a tax cut. But that's from the perspective of Washington. From the perspective of the American taxpayer, Rangel's proposal is a huge increase on most taxpayers, and the RSC alternative will keep taxes about where they are today." Said Rep. John Campbell(R-CA).