To the regular readers of this blog, it is no secret that Congressman Jack Murtha (D-PA) is the “King of Pork”. That dubious honor is not a fleeting one. Last week CBS news ran a piece on Congressman Murtha and his pork barrel politics. According to an estimate from Taxpayers for Common Sense(TCS)...

To the regular readers of this blog, it is no secret that Congressman Jack Murtha (D-PA) is the “King of Pork”. That dubious honor is not a fleeting one.

Last week CBS news ran a piece on Congressman Murtha and his pork barrel politics. According to an estimate from Taxpayers for Common Sense(TCS), Over the past 4 years alone, Murtha has managed to secure more than $600 million in earmarks, and $2 billion since 1992.

In FY 2008 Appropriations bills Mr. Murtha garnered $160 million worth of earmarks. Every private entity that received an earmark from Mr. Murtha also made a campaign contribution, according to information from TCS.

This kind of behavior of receiving earmarks for campaign dollars is reprehensible, and a dreadful way of spending your tax dollars.

To see the rest of the CBS report see the video below.