U.S. Representative John Campbell (R-Irvine) held a luncheon today honoring the cadets and midshipmen nominated from the 48th congressional district. Each of the honorees is currently attending one of the five service academies and is home for winter break. Congressman Campbell praised the “spirit ... U.S. Representative John Campbell (R-Irvine) held a luncheon today honoring the cadets and midshipmen nominated from the 48th congressional district. Each of the honorees is currently attending one of the five service academies and is home for winter break.

Congressman Campbell praised the “spirit of commitment and patriotism that has prompted these young people to serve their country.”