

Lest there be any doubt about whether the new Pelosi Health Care Bill is more costly, more controlling, and closer to socialism than the previous iteration, here is your fact of the day:

You may remember that the 'original' health care bill introduced before the August recess, H.R. 3200

, would have created 53 separate bureaucracies, commissions, boards etc... The new Pelosi Bill, which the House may vote on as early as this week creates a whopping 111 new boards, bureaucracies, commissions, and programs....wow....if this isn't a massive government intervention into our health care system, I don't know what is.

Today's edition of the Wall Street Journal has a scathing editorial of the legislation introduced by Speaker Pelosi. It notes the creation of a new 'Health Choices Commissioner' that will decide "essential benefits" which all insurers will have to offer. This sounds like something straight out of Aldous Huxley's, A Brave New World or George Orwell's, 1984.

Thanks to the House Republican Conference , I have included a list of names of these proposed new bureaucratic entities along with the corresponding page numbers.
