Campbell Chosen to Chair Financial Services Subcommittee on Domestic and International Monetary Policy

WASHINGTON – House Financial Services Chairman-elect Jeb Hensarling (R-TX) announced today that Rep. John Campbell (R-CA) will serve as Chairman of the Domestic and International Policy Subcommittee in the 113th Congress.

Upon being notified of his selection, Rep. Campbell issued the following statement:

“I am honored to have been chosen by Chairman Hensarling to serve as Chair of the Domestic and International Monetary Policy Subcommittee. I appreciate the faith he has placed in me, and I look forward to working with all the members of the subcommittee and the full committee on the many critical issues before us in the 113th Congress.”

The Subcommittee on Domestic and International Monetary Policy will be a new Financial Services subcommittee in the 113th Congress. It was formed through the combination of the existing Subcommittees on Domestic Monetary Policy and Technology and International Monetary Policy and Trade.
